

A vertical stained glass window depicting St. Michael. He is shown from the waist up, wearing ornate golden and green robes. He has long, wavy golden hair and a halo. He holds a large, ornate sword vertically in his right hand. The background of the window is filled with intricate patterns and colors like red, yellow, and green.

S. Michael and All Angels, Brighton

Michaelmass 2013

A faint, grey background image of a church with a prominent spire and Gothic architectural features, likely St. Michael's Church in Brighton.

Feast of the Holy Guardian Angels

Wednesday 2nd October 2013
7:30pm

Solemn Pontifical Sung Mass

Celebrant and Preacher

The Right Revd Nicholas Reade
(Former Bishop of Blackburn)

All are most welcome - a Reception follows Mass

For further information please contact:
Canon Robert Fayers SSC on 01273 727362, or the Parish Office on 01273 8222284

Visit our website at www.saintmichaelsbrighton.org